HOw needefull (good Christian Reader) prayer is, the manifolde calamities of this miserable lyfe, our Sauiour Iesus Christ, the Apostles, & other holy fathers doe throughly teache vs. And for that prayer is a mournyng, and a desire of the spirite to Godward for that which she lacketh, euē as the sicke sorroweth in his hart, longyng for health: whereby (being reconciled to God by faith) we may enioy the thyng we craue, or haue neede of: how desperate may we be thought thē to shew our selues slacke therin? how worthely suffer we daungers, that wilfully incur the same? or which we may easily auoyde, if we will our selues? Pray therefore, in all places, and at all tymes, remember the readines of Gods gracious loue, his gentlenes, & kindnes: who biddeth vs to aſke, and it ſhall be geeuen, to knock: and it ſhall be opened. And whenſoeuer thou laboureſt, and art burdened, be thou aſſured the Lord will offer himſelfe to be reconciled, if thou thy ſelfe be willing wyth faythfull prayer to call for the ſame. To the furtheryng whereof, and to make thee the more prone thereunto, thou haſt heere a manuell, or (as I may better ſay,) a ſweet pommander of prayers, wherein thou haſt of al ſorts to apply vnto thy reliefe, as time and neceſſitie ſhall moue thee in that behalfe.

The pomander of prayers.

☞ The prayer for the Morning.

RENder vnto thee, (O heauēly Father,) most harty thankes by thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, that this night past, thou hast vouchedsafe of thy fatherly goodnesse, to preserue mee from all euill, and to geue my body reſt & ſleepe: I now moſt entirely beſeeche thee that as thou haſt rayſed vp this my body from ſleepe: ſo likewiſe ỽ wilt deliuer my mind

frō the ſleepe of ſinne, and frō the darkenes of this worlde, that I walkyng in the lyght of thy bleſſed worde may onely do that is pleaſaunt in thy ſight profitable to myneigh bour and healthful to my soule. Amen.

A prayer for the Euenyng.

I Most hūbly thāke thee, O mercyfull father, for preseruyng me this day from all misfortunes, and for thy other benefites wherewith thou hast plēteously blessed me. I beseech thee forgeue me al my sins, wherwith I haue offended thy fatherly goodnes, from the very beginning of my lyfe, vnto this present houre, & take me this night into thy tuityon, that mine enemyes, maye haue no power ouer me, but that my body enioying a sweete sleepe, my minde may cõtinually watch vnto thee, and through faith beholde thy blessed sed maiestye w̄ a per fect hope after thys frayle and transitory lyfe, to possesse that immortall and hea-uēly life, where thou gloriously liuest, and reignest with thy on ly begotten sonne, & the holy Ghost, one true, and euerlasting God, worlde with-out end, Amen.

¶A prayer for the for-geuenes of sinne.

O My Lord & onely Sauiour Jesu Christ, which camest into this worlde to take away the heauy burdens of them that were loden, to seeke that was lost, to call sinners vnto repentaūce, to geue euerlasting life to ỹ faithful, and to be a mediator betweene God the father and vs: I poore and wretched sinner

from frō the very hart lament, and inwardly bowayle my sinfull & wretched life, desiring that for thy promise sake according to thy mercifull wont, to be my mediatour & ad-uocate vnto God the father, ỹ he may forgeue me all mine old sinnes, and so wholy possesse my harte by his blessed spirit, that he may defend, me a-

A prayer

¶ A prayer vnto God the father.

THy dearelye belo=ued ſonne (o moſt louing father,) taught vs in his holy goſpel, that to know thee to be ſ alone true God, is euerlaſting lyfe. Graunt therefore we beſeeche thee, that we may truly know thee, euē as we are taught by thy holy word, be=leue with the hart, (t con= cõfesse with ỹ mouth, that thou alone art the true liuing & immortal God our heauenly father, our maker, our preserver, & our defender, that we thus beleuing & confessing, may through thy sonne Christ become heyres of euerlasting life: and as we thus beleue and confesse of thee: so geue vs grace to shewe forth

forth this our faith by godly conuersation & vertuous liuing, that men seeing our good workes maye glorify thee our heauenly father, to whō be praise for euer. Amen.

¶ A prayer vnto God the Sonne.

O Lord Jesu Christ the sonne of the liuyng God, yea, very God him selfe begotten of God the father from frō euerlasting & cōtinuing true and immoztall God, wozlds without end: by thee all things were made and knowledge, in thee dwelleth all fulnes, by thee are we reconciled to God the father, by thee ar we set at peace with him through the bloud of thy cros, by thee we haue free acces vnto the glorious throne of gods maiesty, and by thee ar we brought in through faith vnto this grace, where in we stād & reioice, in hope of ye glory of God: we thanke thee for all thy benefites, and most humbly beseche thee to geue vs grace faithfully to beleue in thee, stedfastly to confesse thee true God, and true man, earnestly to acknowledge thee our alone redemer, sauiour, satisfier, reconciler, intercessour, mediator, and aduocate, that we altogether depēdyng on thee and thy meri-tes, on thy blessed pas-sion, precious death, & glorious resurrec-tion, may study tho-rough thy grace, so to order our lyfe in true holynes and in-nocencye, that at the day of iudgemēt thou mayst presēt vs both body and soule vnto thy heauenly Father, and so for euer and e-uer place vs in thy glorious kingedome, Amen.

Vnto God the holy Ghost.

O Holy and blessed spirite, which being true and euerlasting God, with God the Father, and God the Sonne proceedest from them both, ful of maiestye and power, which also, with thy heauely breath quickthē with diuers gifts which pray vnto thee in the name of Jesus Christe, purifie our hartes we beseech thee with the fire of thy lone, mortifie in vs what so euer is not thine, renue and garnish our minds with thy heauenlye benefites and spirituall giftes, that they may be made thy tēples, leade vs into all necessa-

ceſſary truth, ſuffer vs not to be caryed about with diuers & ſtraũge doctrine, but alway to remaine in that doctrine, whereof thou alone art the author, enarme our ſoules againſt ỹ craftye aſſaultes of ſubtill Sathan, agaynſt the vayne pleaſures of ỹ wicked worlde, and againſt the leud luſtes of filthy fleſh, that we being replenyshed wᵗ thy holy breath, may do that onelye which is acceptable in thy godly sight, Amen.

Prayers of the Magistrates.

¶ Of subiectes, or commons.

AS it is thy godly appointmēt,

MAT.

MAR.

O Lorde God, that some shoulde beare rule in this world to see thy glory set forth and the comun̄ peace kept: so it is thy pleasure agayn, that some should be subiectes, & inferiours to other in their vocation, although before ẏ there is no respect of persons. And forasmuch as it is thy good will to appoint me in the number of subiectes, I beseech thee to geue me a faithfull and an obedyent harte vnto the hye powers, that there may be founde in me no disobediēce, no vnfaithfulnes, no treason, no falshood, no dissimulation, no insurrection, no commotiō, no cōspiracy, nor any kynde of rebellyō in worde or in dede against the ciuil

Magistrates, but all faithfulnes, obedience, quietnesse, subiection, humilitie, & what soeuer else becommeth a Subiect, that I liuing here in al lowlinesse of minde, may at the last day through thy fauor be lifted vp vnto euerlasting glory, where y with the father, & the holy Ghost, liuest and reignest very God for euer. Amen.

Of Fathers and Mothers.

The fruite of the wombe, & the multitude of children is thy gifte and blessing (O Lord) giuen to this ende, that they maye liue to thy glorie, and the cõmoditie of their neigh-neighboz. Foꝛaſmuch therfoꝛe as thou of thy goodneſſe haſte giuen me childꝛen: I beſech thee giue me alſo grace to trayne them vp euen from their cradles in thy nourture and doctrine, in thy holye lawes and bleſſed oꝛdinaunces, that from their very young age, they may knowe thee, beleeue in thee, feare & loue thee, and diligẽtly walke in thy cõmaundements, vnto the prayse of thy glorious name. Amen

Of children.

THou haste giuen a cõmaundement in thy lawe (O heauenly Father) that children should honor their fathers and mothers: I

most

moste humbly beseche thée therfore to breath thy holy spirit into my breft, that I may reue rence & honor my Father & Mother, not only with outwarde gestures of my body, but also with the vnfained affection of the heart, loue them, obey them,
pray for thē, helpe thē,
and do for them, bothe

beloued sonne Jesus Christ our lord. Amē.

Of Masters.

Thy commaundement is by thyne holy Apostle (O most merciful lord Christ) that masters shoulde entreat their seruantes gently, putting away threatninges, and doing that vnto thom whiche is iuste and equall, forasmuch as we also haue a maſter in heauen, with whō ther is no reſpect of perſons: Graunt I moſt hartily pray thée, that I maye ſo order my ſeruaunts, that I attempt none vnrighteouſneſſe againſt thē, but ſo vſe my rule and authoritie ouer them that I may alway remem-member that thou art the cõmon Lord of all, and we al thy seruãts: againe that I may not forget that we be all brothers, hauing one father, which is in heauen, & loke for one glorious kingdom, where thou with the father and the holy Ghost, lyuest and reignest true and euerlasting God, for euer. Amen.

Of seruaunts.

IACO.

O Lord we are commaunded by thy blessed Apostles, that we should honor and obey our bodily masters with feare and trembling, not only if they be good & curteous, but also thoughe they be froward, and serue thē, not vnto the

Of

Of Maydes.

There is nothing ỹ becommeth a maid better than ſilence, ſhamefaſtnes, & chaſtitie of both body & mind. For theſe things beeing once loſt, ſhe is no more a maid, but a ſtrũpet in the ſight of god: howſoeuer ſhe diſguyſeth hir ſelfe, & diſſembleth with the worlde.

I therfore most humbly beseech thée (O mercifull father) frō whō commeth euery good & perfect gift, & without whom we are able to do nothing, that thou wilt so order my tong, & dispose my talk that I speake nothing but that becommeth my state, age, and person, neither that I delight to

to heare any talk, that mighte in any poynte moue me to lewdnes, seeing that euil wordes corrupt good maners. Giue me also suche shamefastnesse as may plucke me away from the delectation, eyther of thinking, speaking, hearing, seeing, or doing euil, that my whole delight may be in ver-tue,

Of single men.

LOrd thou hast cõmaunded by thine holy Apostle, that we should abstayne from fornicatiõ, and that euery one of vs should know howe to keepe hys vessell, that is to say, his body in holinesse and honour, and not in the lust of concupiscences as doo the

A prayer for vvomen with child.

intollerable the paines of women are, that trauel of childe, if through thy tẽder mercies they be not mitigated & eased, most humbly pray thee for Jesus Christs sake thy sonne and our Lorde, that thy louing kindenesse may make that easie and tollerable, whiche sinne hath made harde and paynefull. Eaſe (O Lord) ỹ paynes which thou moſt righteouſly haſt put vpon all women for the ſinne & diſobediẽce of our graũdmother Eue, in whom al we haue ſinned: and geue vnto all ſuche as haue conceiued and be with child, ſtrength to bring forth that which thou wonderfully haſt

Of Housholders.

TO haue children & seruauntes, is thy blessing (O Lord:) but not to order them accoording to thy worde

¶ For the gift of the holy Ghost.

SO frayle is our nature, so vile is our flesche, so lewde is our harte, so corrupte are our our affectes, so wicked are all our thoughtes euen from our childehood vpwarde, that of our selues we can neither thinke, breath, speake, or do any thing that is prayse worthy in thy sight, O heauenly Father, yea, except thou doest assiste vs with thy merciful goodnes, all things are so farre out of frame in vs, that we ſée nothing preſent in our ſelues, but thy heauy diſpleaſure, and eternal damnatiõ. Vouchſafe therfore, O ſweét Father, to ſende thy holy ſpirit vnto vs, whiche may make vs newe creatures, put away from vs all fleſhly luſtes, fill our hartes with newe

A thankf

A thankesgiuing vnto God for the departure of the faythfull out of this worlde.

O Howe can wee (most louing Father) render vnto thee sufficient thanks for thine inestimable goodnes toward thy faythfull seruants, whom thou calling oute of this wretched worlde, vouchsafeste to place in thy heauenly kingdome among the glorious companie of thy holy Angels, and blessed Saincts. O full precious is the deathe of the faythfull in thy sighte. Blessed are the dead, that dye in thée (O Lorde) for they are at reste from theyr paynefull trauayles,
